

SERGEANT JIM SCOTT

Financial Crime Unit
Vancouver Police Department

CANADA

Jim is currently a Sergeant with the Vancouver Police Financial Crime Unit. In this position, Jim deals with market, corporate, private and cybercrime. Prior to this assignment, Jim spent two years seconded to the RCMP-led Integrated Security Unit for the 2010 Vancouver Winter Olympic Games. In this role, Jim focused on the planning, development and implementation of various communication systems, including the Olympic Secret Network – a computer network between the RCMP and the Canadian Military. Previously, Jim worked for four years in the area of police communication and dispatch systems.

Jim completed his Bachelor's degree at the University of the Fraser Valley and is also a commercial pilot, having flown aircrafts ranging from floatplanes in the Northwest Territories of Canada to the Boeing 747-400 on international routes. Jim is a Director for the Better Business Bureau of Mainland British Columbia, and volunteers his time with many non-profit organizations, including participating in overseas house-building projects.
