

Cpl. Archie Alafriz

Senior Supervisor, Anti-Terrorist Financial Investigations Unit (ATFIU), "E" Div., Integrated National Security Enforcement Team (E-INSET)
Canada

Cpl. Archie Alafriz is the RCMP's subject matter expert on Anti-Terrorist Resourcing. He spent the last 12 of his 23-year service with the National Security Program and was the team lead in Canada's first ever terrorist fundraising conviction. Archie has been involved in investigations into a myriad of listed terrorist entities like the LTTE, Hamas, Hezbollah, ETA, MEK, Al-Qaida, Al-Shabaab, Jemaah Islamiyah and the PKK. He earned his fellowship and contributes to the Asia Pacific Center of Security Studies, a US military hosted policy analysis facility in Waikiki, Hawaii. Archie is in regular consultation with global terrorist experts from the RAND, RSIS and the APCSS.
