PREVENTION AND RESPONSE.”

BENEFITS FOR DELEGATES

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVE:

To provide Managers and Executives with the effective tools required to effectively manage the challenges posed by today's technologies upon cybercrime prevention and response.

WHAT WOULD YOU GAIN FROM THIS CONFERENCE?

Prominent, international practitioners from criminal justice and corporate security sectors and field-oriented academia will come together at the POLCYB International Conference 2010. They will provide dynamic and thoughtful, presentations, and interactive panel discussions incorporating case-studies and success stories involving international collaboration as well as inter-jurisdictional challenges. Delegates will learn about cybercrime trends, threats and solutions posed by new and emerging technologies. They will also gain new knowledge on initiatives that worked and some that did not.

The Facilitated Special Interest Group Session on the second day provides a premier face-to-face opportunity for international delegates from Asia Pacific, North America, and Europe to share different perspectives and approaches, explore emerging issues, and propose effective recommendations and action plans.

Additionally, delegates will have the opportunity to meet and exchange ideas with other local and international colleagues to help them meet their daily challenges posed by the ever-changing cybercrime environment. All delegates will receive a Delegates Contact List after the event. These recommendations will also be brought forward for further discussions at the Annual POLCYB International Summit 2010, which will be co-hosted with the CyberSecurity Malaysia, in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, October 25th to 28th, 2010.
