

THE SOCIETY FOR THE POLICING OF CYBERSPACE

Presents:

The Policing Cyberspace International Conference 2008

Co-hosted By:

Canadian Pacific Police Service

In Collaboration With:

International Cybercrime Research Centre (I.C.R.C.)

September 29th & 30th, 2008 (Monday & Tuesday)

*Fairmont Waterfront Hotel, 900 Canada Place Way
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada*

Conference Theme:

"International Research and Collaboration in Cybersecurity"

Keynote Speaker:

Hsinchun Chen, Ph.D., University of Arizona, U.S.A.

Keynote Presentation:

"Dark Web Terrorism Research."

<http://www.polcyb.org>

"International Research and Collaboration in Cybersecurity"

September 29th & 30th, 2008 (Monday & Tuesday)
Fairmont Waterfront Hotel, Vancouver, B.C., Canada

Panel Themes:

1. Who's Doing What in Cybercrime Research: Updates from Global Public and Private Partners.
2. International Cybercrime Trends, Threats, Prevention and Response: Perspectives from Government, Industry, Criminal Justice Agencies.
3. Enhancing Trust & Collaboration in e-Government and e-Commerce: Challenges and Best Practices.
4. Social Networking in Cyberspace: Friend or Foe?
5. Challenges of Protecting Information and Intellectual Property in the Entertainment Industry
6. Challenges in Investigation & Presentation of Cybercrime in Court
7. Protection of Information & Privacy versus Lawful Access to Information: Legislative and Policy Considerations in Private and Public Sectors.
8. Emerging Technologies and Convergence of Technologies: Implications upon Cybersecurity.
9. Identity Management: Challenges and Response.
10. Health & Safety considerations in Cybersecurity.
11. Towards an Integrated Approach to Management of Hi-tech Offenders.

Panel Discussions will include, but not limited to, the following topics:

- ❖ Financial Crime & Organized Crime
- ❖ Intellectual Property
- ❖ Spam, Phishing, Botnets
- ❖ Identity Management and Biometrics
- ❖ Pharmaceutical Crime on Internet
- ❖ Online Trading/Banking
- ❖ Risk assessment of Converging Technologies
- ❖ Risk assessment of Emerging Technologies
- ❖ Human Trafficking & Border Control
- ❖ Virtual Games & Social Networking Sites
- ❖ Data Protection & Privacy vs. Lawful Access
- ❖ Child Exploitation
- ❖ Homeland Security / Critical Infrastructure Protection
- ❖ Challenges in Assessment and Management of Hi-tech Offenders.

"Who Should Attend"?

- Senior / Executive Management in Private and Public sectors:
 - ❖ Corporate Security /Information Security
 - ❖ Law Enforcement / other Criminal Justice Agencies and Government Agencies
- Judges & Crown Prosecutors
- Policy Analysts /Security Analysts
- Investigators / Trainers / Legal Professionals
- Risk Management Officers / Security Intelligence Officers
- Forensic Accountants
- Researchers and Academics