The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award Sponsored Jointly by Motorola Information Protection Services, U.S.A., and Sun Microsystems

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Society For The Policing Of Cyberspace (POLCYB), Motorola Information Protection Services, and Sun Microsystems are pleased to announce The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award (I.L.E.C.A.) Call For Entries for 2008.

The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award recognizes innovation and best practices pertaining to prevention, detection, and/or response to cybercrimes. This is your chance to spotlight your law enforcement agency for fighting cybercrime by using proactive and successful inter-agency collaboration with community partners.

The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award program honours achievements in one or more of the following goals:

★ Prevention of Cybercrime ★ Detection of Cybercrime ★ Response to Cybercrime

There will be two award recipients, GOLD and SILVER. Recipients of both ILECA awards will be sponsored to the 8th Annual Policing Cyberspace International Summit 2008, which will be held in Bangkok, November 17 to 21, 2008.

Submission Deadline:

- All submissions MUST BE RECEIVED by the POLCYB office on, or before: Wednesday, October 1, 2008, 17:00 Pacific Standard Time.

THE AWARDS

Whilst applications should be submitted in the name of individuals, the award will be presented to the law enforcement agency at which the winning initiative/investigation was completed.

The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award consists of the following:

GOLD AWARD:

For the Principal Law Enforcement Member who undertook the work of the initiative:

- ❖ All travel and accommodation expenses and Summit registration paid by The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award to attend the Policing Cyberspace International Summit 2008 (POLCYB International Summit 2008), November 17 – 21, 2008, Bangkok, Thailand.
- ❖ The Principal Initiative/Investigation Law Enforcement Member will be invited to present a summary of the initiative/investigation at the POLCYB International Summit 2008.

For the Law Enforcement Agency:

- ❖ Trophy - The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award - Gold Award Trophy
- ❖ Cash - A further cash award will be presented to the law enforcement agency to be used towards combating cybercrime.

SILVER AWARD:

For the Principal Law Enforcement Member who undertook the work of the initiative:

- ❖ Travel and accommodation expenses and Summit registration paid by The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award to attend the Policing Cyberspace International Summit 2008 (POLCYB International Summit 2008), November 17 – 21, 2008, Bangkok, Thailand.
- ❖ Trophy - The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime – Silver Award Trophy

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY

- ❖ The International Law Enforcement Cybercrime Award Program is open to all Law Enforcement Agencies of any size, worldwide. The awards will be made to the winning law enforcement agencies.
- ❖ Law enforcement members who have expended their efforts on a volunteer basis to achieve these goals are also encouraged to apply.
- ❖ The initiative/investigation can be of a local, national, or international nature.

Judging Guidelines: Applications are judged on demonstrated innovative approaches in the following areas:

- ❖ Leadership role and commitment in creating and leveraging Community Partnerships through this initiative/investigation.
- ❖ Working effectively within the limits of available resources to develop effective and efficient Community Partnerships through this initiative/investigation.
- ❖ Demonstrate collaboration with the community on a local, national or international level.
- ❖ Produced meaningful results that can be used as models for other law enforcement agencies.

“Cybercrime” in the I.L.E.C.A. program refers to technological crime of various nature, e.g. crimes committed through the internet, wireless technologies.

Who are the “Community Partner(s)”?

- ❖ A “Community Partner” in this award program could be a commercial agency, not-for-profit agency, or an academic institution.
- ❖ A “Community Partner” does not include an organization that comes under the criminal justice system or other government agencies and ministries.
